

COMMITMENT TO CLIENT

Rich in work ethic and strong in character, Cave Creek's founder, JD Donahoe, has cultivated a lifetime of exposure to the real estate and construction industries to become one of the strongest, most reliable home builders in Central Florida. Active in the community he was recently inducted as one of four Builder Directors of the Citrus County Builders Association for 2008-2009 and a soccer coach for the Nature Coast Soccer League.

Since 2007, Cave Creek Development has been giving Central Florida homebuyers more! More experience, more impressive home designs, more outstanding features and more rewarding lifestyles in the communities of Central Florida.

When looking at home builders in Central Florida, you will have a great deal of builders and communities from which to choose. We encourage you to visit other home builders in the area and compare them to Cave Creek. From our affordable prices, to the attention to detail both inside and out, Cave Creek always delivers superior value.

Our brand new Design Center is one of the finest offered by home builders in Central Florida. With an extensive array of options and upgrades, you'll find everything you need to embellish your home. From the simplest interior details to the custom features on every buyer's wish list, it is here that you will personally select the amenities that will truly make your home unique.

Cave Creek Development, Inc. can build throughout the state of Florida.